Meet Your '22-'23 SEPAC Board

Marisa Carnevale Ronan, Co-Chair of RT-SEPAC from 2021-2023, Marisa Carnevale Ronan, Co-Chair 2021-2023, is a parent of a student in the upper school at Rising Tide and a junior in college. Both of her children have/had an IEP since the age of three. Marisa worked in commercial lending and capital markets for many years before "retiring" to raise her family. She has been actively involved in special education for nearly two decades as both a parent and as a board member of two SEPACs.

Jenna O'Donnell, Co-Chair 2022, is a parent of a middle school student. She is a special education advocate whose lived personal experiences led her to find success and meaningful work in educating schools about disabilities and its educational impact. Jenna is a graduate of the Mass Families Leadership Series and completed advocacy training with both Wrightslaw and Parent Consultant Training Institute of the FCSN. Jenna works at AANE (Autism Asperger Network) for Family & Individual Services as an information specialist, parent coach, and in addition, conducts IEP reviews and leads trainings

Maureen Patroliia, Secretary, is a parent of an upper school student. Her family has been with Rising Tide for nine years with a graduate in college. Maureen works in the Home Health field. She has been a SEPAC member for seven years and the secretary for two years.
